Corporate Social Responsibility Software Market: Future Trends, Industry Outlook and Growth Forecast 2035

The global corporate social responsibility software market was valued at USD 1.7 billion in 2025 and is projected to reach USD 5.5 billion by 2035, expanding at an 11.9% CAGR from 2026 to 2035. Revenue is expected to reach USD 2 billion in 2026, driven by expanding ESG regulations, investor pressure for transparency, net-zero commitments, supply-chain sustainability requirements, and AI-enabled reporting automation.

Corporate social responsibility software is evolving from a reporting tool into an enterprise data and governance layer that collects, validates, manages, and discloses environmental, social, and governance information. Platforms increasingly connect carbon accounting, Scope 3 measurement, supplier sustainability, stakeholder engagement, social-impact programs, compliance, risk management, and ERP data.

Software solutions generated USD 1.22 billion in 2025, representing 72.3% of market revenue, and are projected to reach USD 3.75 billion by 2035. Services generated USD 466.3 million and are expected to grow at a 13.7% CAGR as organizations require implementation, framework mapping, training, managed data operations, and audit-readiness support.

Regulatory reporting and disclosure management accounted for 32.1% of market revenue in 2025 and are projected to reach USD 1.86 billion by 2035. Corporate sustainability performance tracking represented 21.7% of revenue, while ESG risk assessment and compliance monitoring is projected to be the fastest-growing application at a 15% CAGR.

North America dominated the corporate social responsibility software market with USD 641.9 million in revenue in 2025, representing 38.1% of global revenue. Asia Pacific is projected to be the fastest-growing region as ESG regulation, climate disclosures, sustainability-linked financing, supplier reporting, and digital transformation expand across China, India, Japan, Australia, Singapore, and South Korea.

Workiva led the market with more than a 16.3% share in 2025. Its competitive position is supported by multi-framework ESG reporting, audit trails, data integration, disclosure workflows, regulatory-template management, and strong adoption among large enterprises and SEC-reporting organizations.

Some of the major players in this market are Benevity, EcoVadis, SAP, Sphera, IBM Envizi, Salesforce Net Zero Cloud, Cority, Nasdaq Metrio, Socialsuite, Diligent, and Microsoft. The top five companies collectively held approximately 50.3% of the market in 2025.
